Best Doctors Appoints Ray Dracca as National Sales Director of the Workers' Compensation Division

BOSTON – March 3, 2009 – Best Doctors, Inc., an expert medical consultation service that enlists top medical specialists to ensure that injured workers have the right diagnosis and the right treatment, today announced that Raymond Dracca has joined the company as national sales director of the workers' compensation division. In this role, Dracca will oversee the sales and account management teams for Best Doctors' workers' compensation division. Through its workers' compensation services, Best Doctors helps insurers and employers better manage risk and reduce costs for their workers' compensation claims by improving the quality of care to individuals with work-related injuries.

Dracca has more than 20 years of experience in diverse segments of the workers' compensation industry, including insurance brokerage and managed care. Dracca joins Best Doctors from Fiserv Insurance Solutions where he was senior vice president responsible for the sales and account management teams for P2P Link, LLC, the industry leader in workers' compensation eBilling. Prior to Fiserv, Dracca worked extensively in sales and sales leadership roles in the workers' compensation insurance industry, including as an insurance broker with Rollins Burdick Hunter (Aon), and in the managed care field with an industry leader, Intracorp.

“By providing expert physician guidance, support and management for acute and non-acute injuries, we ensure that injured workers have the appropriate diagnosis and necessary treatment to produce optimal outcomes,” said Evan Falchuk, president and COO of Best Doctors. “Ray’s extensive sales leadership experience and knowledge of the industry will be extremely valuable to our executive leadership team and the workers' compensation division.”
