BEST DOCTORS RECOGNIZED AS ACCME-ACCREDITED RESOURCE TO EDUCATE PHYSICIANS

Best Doctors unique, dynamic learning environment accredited for 8th year.

February 14, 2006 — Boston — For the eighth straight year, Best Doctors, Inc. has been recognized by The Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) as a source of Continuing Medical Education (CME) credits for physicians.

Best Doctors provides a unique, employer-sponsored benefit for consumers faced with serious illnesses. Working with the consumer's treating physician, Best Doctors provides information regarding the latest diagnostic tools and treatments. This helps ensure that consumers get the appropriate diagnosis and treatment. In this way, Best Doctors provides a dynamic, educational interaction with the treating physician.

Accreditation by the ACCME means that Best Doctors can help doctors realize the value of this educational interaction by earning the credits they need to maintain their licenses. By taking a detailed test following the work with Best Doctors — all of which is free of charge to the physician -- the doctor may receive valuable credits towards annual licensure requirements.

"Best Doctors is dedicated to supporting physicians with the information they need to treat their patients well," says Evan Falchuk, President of Best Doctors. "Our accreditation by the ACCME demonstrates our commitment to improving the quality of care through access to the best information."
